If they don't have a picture ID, then we have a list of secondary IDs that we will accept. It's to make it easier on the customer.  Q. Is an affidavit required per se, with those secondary form of IDs, to get a birth certificate if you lack a photo ID?  A. No.  Q. And  A. Let me let me correct that. An affidavit would be required if the person ordering is not a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Q. Okay. Well, with respect to those situations involving a fee waiver, does that include the five dollars expedited processing fee?  A. No. No. If there is an expedited application, they must pay the five dollar expedite fee.  Q. Okay. And then  A. Can I qualify that real quick?  Q. Sure.  A. The application can be expedited if they come into our lobby and we process it. We usually turn people around pretty quickly there. And if they order online, which has the same processing time as the expedited application, we do not charge an expedite fee for that service if they order through Texas.gov.  Q. Okay. Now, you were asked a question earlier, a series of questions about whether you all track applications by race, and I believe your response was that the birth certificate application form does not ask about race; is that correct?  A. That's correct.  Q. But there is a question on the form that asks whether the record is being used to obtain a passport

Q Did you know him from growing up in Edinburg?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	went from Fannin, which would have been the farthest east, all the way to Tilden, which would have been the farthest west, another 100 miles or 90 miles. So it's a pretty big area, yeah.  Q (By Mr. Freeman) Fair enough. How would you describe your district in terms of its demographics, age, race, et cetera?  A It is a predominately Hispanic-Latino district. I would say it's close to 60 percent Hispanic. Probably I would say the average population age is in the 30s.  Q Okay. A lot of non-citizens?  A A lot of non-citizens? Not a lot, but I would say I can only go on what I what I know about Beeville in particular. But Beeville is the largest municipality in the district no, I take that back. Jim Wells is Alice is, but we're like the second.  So in Beeville, 1 percent maybe Q Okay.  A non-citizen.

A I can't remember, but I'll try to give you an example. I know of a house that had 18 people registered to vote. One person could vote for all those 18 people, if they wanted to, and there was nothing we could do to stop it. Q Isn't it the case that the poll workers would see the same person coming in?	actually did this, because they'd have a photo and you could put them in a lineup and say, okay, which of these people did this and who did they impersonate?  Q But how would the photo on a person's I.D. help more than actually seeing the person in the polling place prior to the lineup?
8 A Well, they wouldn't necessarily for a 9 while there, you know, Bee County was a one-party 10 county for a long time. So you didn't have things 11 like poll watchers. And you had collusion between 12 the election officials and candidates. So if if 13 one individual was in collusion with the election	A Well, you'd know, at least at one of these times that they actually had a valid ID. I would expect if they voted 18 times, at least one of those votes is probably their own vote.  Q Sure.  But if they're voting fraudulently, it
<ul> <li>judge and a candidate, that individual could come in and vote 18 times with a different voter</li> <li>registration and nothing could be done about it</li> <li>Q If a</li> <li>A because there was no poll watch.</li> <li>Q If an election official was in collusion</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(doesn't matter if they have the right photo I.D</li> <li>(A) No, but you</li> <li>(B) Q ( it only matters that they're showing up and voting fraudulently?</li> <li>(A) You could take each one of those I.D.s, 18</li> <li>(D) of them, and say, okay put them in a lineup and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>with a candidate and wants to promote voter fraud,</li> <li>couldn't that election official just ignore the</li> <li>voter I.D. requirement?</li> <li>A They could, yes.</li> <li>Q So SB 14 does nothing to prevent</li> <li>collusion, because it does nothing more than an</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>say, okay, which guy did this, which gal did this, and you could point to that individual.</li> <li>Q How would they have the I.D.? Do does</li> <li>SB 14 require the poll workers to record photo or other image of the I.D.s that are used to vote?</li> <li>A No, but the State has in its database the</li> </ul>
162	164
an or than individual's ability to see the same person voting 14 times would do. Correct?  A Well, this is where I disagree, because I do think at some point one, the both parties now have poll watching. They've learned from from this corruption. So I think that you would have other people in the in the in the precinct election place that would be in a position to catch that kind of shenanigans.  Q But wouldn't that poll watcher also see that it was the same person coming in 14 times?	<ol> <li>picture.</li> <li>Q Okay.</li> <li>A So the State okay. You've got an allegation, eighteen people, one voter.</li> <li>Q Uh-huh.</li> <li>A You you you collect the pictures of all 18 of those individuals from the State database, put them in a lineup and say, which one voted what Q Okay. But if there is collusion, isn't it possible that the person doesn't show sorry.</li> <li>Strike that.</li> <li>A Maybe we're talking about past each other.</li> </ol>
12 A Yeah, they would.  13 Q And so they would be able to stop it in the same way that	13 Q That's what I'm trying to solve, because 14 I'm trying to that -- or whether it is your understanding that mail-in ballots are a greater source of election fraud than in-person voting.

A I know that that is something I've worked on, mail-in fraud. And I will tell you this about mail-in ballot fraud is that it takes a lot of work to do it, and you can do it on a very small scale. But to do it on a large scale, it's very difficult. You can sway an election with mail-in ballot fraud if -- on a -- on a small election like a school board election or commissioner's race or city councilman's race, because it is so hard to do what -- the process that I discussed with you earlier, to get -- to get the mail-in ballot application in and then to get the mail-in ballot back, then to help the voter vote the mail-in ballot -- or to fill out the mail-in ballot and send it in and then to get that in the mail in time to count. So it takes a lot of effort to do mail-in ballot fraud. But if you're really interested, you can do -- you can really sway a small election. You can have, for example, an election in Jim Wells County of -- a school board election where more than two-thirds of the ballots are mail-in ballots. You can have a commissioner's race - we just had one in

A Yes.

Q Isn't that also a substantial impediment to that form of ballot fraud?

A One is harder than the other, but you can do it. See, the -- this is -- I keep going back to -- my original point is if you -- if you build in a step, just an additional step, that makes it a little more difficult, such as getting an identification card with a photo on it to safeguard the system, that those -- just that one additional step would make it more difficult.

But the other thing that you're doing, and what has been lost in a lot of this discussion on the floor and then -- you know, that -- is that you're trying to build confidence in the system.

Americans -- this is 2012. Americans are used to showing their I.D. for just about everything they do. And they expect that when they go to the ballot box, they are exercising a sacred right and that it deserves some safeguard. And they don't understand how it is that they are not required to show an I.D. In fact, some will show their I.D. as a matter of form whether they have to or not. They don't understand that all they have to do is show their voter registration certificate under previous law.

Bee County - where there was five or 600 votes and 250 of those are mail-in ballots. So you would sway an election with the mail-in ballot, but it's a lot of work. And the reason that they can do it is because you're allowed to mail in your ballot over several weeks, so you can do ten a day, 15 a day, 20 a day.

One of the laws I passed has to do with trying to -- one of the laws I got passed was trying to aggregate these mail-in ballots. There was a scheme to make it look like -- to make it a felony instead of a Class A or Class B misdemeanor.

Q Would you agree that changing the law in a way that promotes people who would normally vote in person to vote by mail increases the opportunity for that mail-in ballot fraud?

MR. MCKENZIE: Same objection.

A I wouldn't agree with that just for the very reason I just explained is that the mail-in ballot process is so -- has so many steps that it is a difficult thing to do on a large scale.

Q (By Mr. Freeman) But doesn't in-person voter impersonation require somehow acquiring someone else's voter registration card prior to going in and voting?

All they had -- most people will actually take out their -- their driver's license and say, "This is me."

Look what happened in -- in Washington, D.C. Somebody came into a polling place in Washington, D.C., and said they were Eric Holder. And they were about to be handed an ident -- a ballot impersonating our very Attorney General. Is that not ridiculous?

Q Do you know if they were actually handed a ballot?

A) No. They -- this person didn't follow through with it. You know why? Because they knew at that point it would be a crime if they accepted the ballot, but was the -- was the election worker ready and able to give them a ballot? Yes. It's all caught on tape.

Q Are you aware of any incidents of non-citizen voting that occurred in HD 35?

14	Q. Okay. Were you told by the Department of	14	A. I had a initial conference call that I referred
15	Justice that this document would be used in a legal	15	to earlier. So, yes. So the answer is yes.
16	proceeding?	16	Q. I've asked written communications?
17	A. I don't recall.	17	A. Oh, written?
18	Q. Was it your understanding that it would be?	18	Q. Yeah.
19	A. Yes.	19	A. Yes.
20	Q. Okay.	20	Q. Okay. Can you tell me when did you have
21	MR. SWEETEN: And we'll have this marked	21	written communication with the Department of Justice?
22	as Anchia 4.	22	A. It would have been draft a draft of this
23	(Exhibit 4 marked for identification.)	23	of this declaration prior to the 9th of April.
24	Q. (By Mr. Sweeten) And I will represent to you	24	Q. During the preclearance process, before March
25	that this is a Minute Order from the United States	25	12, 2012, did you have any discussions with anybody at
	30		32
1	District Court, District of Columbia.	1	the Department of Justice about Senate Bill 14?
2	A. Can I ask you a question about that?	2	A. Not that I'm aware of. Not not that I
3	Q. Sure.	3	recall.
4	A. What is a minute order?	4	Q. Did you have any discussions, of any kind,
5	Q. It's an order from the Court.	5	about the matters about the preclearance process?
6	A. Okay.	6	A. Yes.
7	Q. Okay. I'm going to ask you to just read the	7	Q. Okay. With the Department of Justice?
8	minute order to yourself and then I'm going to ask you	8	A. No.
9	questions about it.	9	Q. Okay.
10	A. Okay.	10	A. Not that I recall.
11	Q. Okay. So the date of this minute order, if	11	<ul> <li>Q. So your first contact with the Department of</li> </ul>
12	you'll look at the top, it's an e-mail. It's April 3,	12	Justice would have been after the March 12, 2012
13	2012. Do you see that?	13	preclearance denial date; is that right?
14	A. I do.	14	A. As far as I can recall, yes.
15	Q. Had you had any conversations with the	15	Q. You can put that aside. Thank you.
16	Department of Justice prior to this minute order	16	All right. Let's look at your
17	issuing?	17	declaration. Let me ask you: Do you know if this was
18	A. I don't recall the exact date of the of our	18	filed with the District Court in Washington, D.C.?
19	discussions, so it would be impossible for me to say	19	A. What is this?
20	whether it was before or after.	20	Q. This is Deposition Exhibit Number 3, the 21	<ul> <li>Q. When you were contacted by the Department of</li> </ul>		declaration.
22	Justice, were you told that they had a impending	22	A. Anchia 3?
23	deadline to file information as set forth in this minute	23	Q. Yes. Were you aware this was filed with the
24	order?	24	with the D.C. Circuit Court?
25	A. I don't recall.	25	A. Yes.

	33		35
1	Q. All right. Let's look at the first paragraph.	1	Q. So I guess I guess that's another question:
2	All right. The first sentence says, "My name is Rafael	2	Were you sent the e-mail on a State account or was this
3	Anchia. I am a resident of Dallas, Texas, registered to	3	on your private e-mail account or was it a work e-mail

5	Who wrote that first sentence?	5	A. I don't recall.
6	A. I think I did.	6	Q. Do you recall any e-mail communications you've
7	Q. Okay.	7	had with the Department of Justice and which account
8	A. At least, I furnished the information that	8	that would have been on?
9	comprised that first sentence.	9	A. I don't recall the exact account but it would
10	Q. Okay.	10	relate to the draft.
11	A. So wrote if you're asking did I type this	11	Q. Did you send a red-line draft back with 12	in, is that the question you're asking? I just want	12	changes?
13	some when you when you say "wrote," since this is	13	A. I don't believe so, no.
14	a typed document and I'm not trying to be I'm just	14	Q. Did you sign the first draft given to you?
15	trying to answer the question that's asked.	15	A. No.
16	Q. That's fair. Go ahead.	16	Q. Okay. Did you call them and tell them what you
17	A. So I furnished this information. I did not	17	wanted changed?
18	type this information.	18	A. I believe that's right, yes. We did have a
19	Q. Okay. Did you write did you did you give	19	phone conversation. We
20	them a draft of your declaration or was that given to	20	Q. What did you ask go ahead.
21	you?	21	A. Yes.
22	A. I received the first draft after we had spoken	22	Q. You can finish. I'm sorry. I don't want to
23	during that that first conference call that we had	23	trip on your answer.
24	that I referenced earlier.	24	A. No. We had a phone conversation related to the
25	Q. So the first written product that became your	25	draft.
	34		36
1	declaration was sent to you by the Department of	1	Q. What did you ask to have changed?
2	Justice?	2	A. I don't recall, to be honest.
3	A. Yes.	3	Q. Let's look at the second paragraph. "I'm
4	Q. Okay. And how long was the first draft that	4	currently a member of the Texas House of

8	Q. Okay. This declaration has 18 paragraphs. Do	8	the outcome of the election." Is that what you wrote?
9	you remember how many paragraphs the first draft had?	9	A. That is what I said.
10	A. I do not.	10	Q. And what does that mean, that last sentence.
11	Q. Okay. Do you have a copy of the first draft	11	It's "a majority Hispanic district in which Hispanic
12	that the Department of Justice sent you?	12	voters are able to control the outcome of the election,"
13	A. I do not.	13	what does that mean?
14	Q. Okay. What did you do with that?	14	A. That based on the voter turnout in the
15	A. Probably recycled it.	15	district, if Hispanic registered voters were to turn out
16	Q. Was that sent to you on e-mail?	16	in large numbers, they could elect the person of their
17	A. Yes.	17	choice.
18	Q. And do you save your e-mails?	18	Q. Okay. What is the racial makeup of District

Do you recall ever voting on either photo ID or voter ID legislation? A. No. Q. All right. I'm going to hand you what's been previously marked as Exhibit 44. And so, what this is is a copy of a bill. You notice in the upper right-hand corner it says HB No. 1706? A. Uh-huh. Q. I'll let you take a look at this prior to asking	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	where you'll see the A. Okay. Yeah, it looks like it was. It was referred to State Affairs. Q. And were you on the State Affairs Committee in 2005 in the Senate? A. I'll have to check. I think I was. I wasn't Chair of it by then. I had moved over to Chair of Natural Resources. Q. So, as a member if you were a member of the State Affairs Committee, would this have been a bill that would have come to your committee and been considered by it based on the Online history in Exhibit 191? A. If the Chairman would have granted a hearing, it would have come to the full committee. We wouldn't have seen it until the Chair decides to grant a hearing.

So, I hand you what's been marked as Exhibit 168, previously marked as Exhibit 168, and you'll see that it says Senate Journal, 81st Legislature, Regular Session, Second Day, Wednesday, January 14, 2009.  A. Uh-huh.  Q. And would that be the beginning of the legislative session? Is that correct?  A. That would have been being Wednesday, that would have been the second day.  Q. Second day of the legislative session. Thank you, Senator.  A. If the 13th was the first day.  Q. And if we go to  A. Could have been the week well, that's about right. The 13th would have been probably about the

After the committee process, as you're going down through down here closer to the bottom, testimony taken in committee, it was reported out of the committee favorably without amendments. In other words, the bill is filed, was not amended in the committee. Then it was set as a special order. And the next entry there, 3-11 over here it looks like Journal Page 464, a record vote was taken.  The special order is a process within the committee still. So, that's where it's voted out of committee, and the report was printed and distributed, and there's what we call a 24-hour layout rule. You can't just take a bill and get out of committee and have it up there unless, again, you suspend that rule. Well, they didn't do it with this one. There was no vote taken to do it.  So, it you see here it came out of committee	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	rule was set aside for SB 362 and actually was not followed?  A. Wouldn't surprise me, no. - guess, rephrase it? I'm just not --
  - Q. Sure. So this paragraph on Page 8, it refers to "general knowledge of a national wave of support for certain organizations." Do you know what it means where it says -- when it says "general knowledge"?
- A. Okay. I guess we're talking about general knowledge.
- 10 Q. Maybe I can -- maybe I can ask it a different 11 way.
  - A. Sure.

- Q. So does "general knowledge," does that mean that it's just kind of something that everyone would be aware of?
- A. Okay. Yeah.
- Q. Is that fair to say?
- A. I would say, yeah, it would be fair to say general knowledge would be something that everybody, the majority of people, would know and be aware of, yes.
  - Q. And so where, with respect to this, the national wave of support for these organization, where would people get that general knowledge? Where would it -- how would I know about that?

A. I can't profess to be an expert of the topic, hot," but there may be a couple who will say that the temperature isn't that bad.

- Q. Based on the materials that you've read, is it your understanding that the majority of Texans support the voter ID requirement to vote?
- A. I've seen numbers, with a vague question, that may say as such. But more research will still need to be done on saying, you know, what was told, was anything more told up. There's still concerns when it just says, flat out, well, how do you feel, there's concerns with
- that. So I don't know how reliable some of the polls are.
  Q. Are you aware of polls showing that the
- majority of Texans support photographic ID requirements to vote regardless of race?
   A. I think I've heard or seen some -- some of
- A. I think I've heard or seen some -- some of those polls.
  Q. Are you aware of polls showing that the
- majority of Texans support photographic ID requirement to vote regardless of minority language status?
- A. I think I've seen some polls saying that.
- Q. Does the Texas NAACP contend that African - American voters in Texas are -- are more likely than
- other voters to lack qualifying photo ID under SB 14?
  - A. Yes, we do.

- Q. And I know we had talked about this some before. Can you tell me -- can you tell me what that conclusion is based on?
- A. I think if you look at data that deals with -socioeconomic data that shows how your lower income population tends to be minority, African American,
  Hispanic, what have you, it would show that, you know, there -- there -- the data that the people who could be possessing any forms of ID, more likely would be your minorities, when you looks at any form.

And then even the access to be able to get documents that would needed to get the ID would be a could be an issue in itself, if you, you know, have to travel hundreds of miles to get there because of where you live or, you know, you don't have private transportation. So the public transportation doesn't get you, you know, in a good area to get there, or, you note, the kind of jobs they may have or taking off work to have to travel these many miles could be a hindrance in itself. And like I say, even getting documents to get it, the cost behind that, the financial strain, that can be placed upon them, will be a burden, just so they can -- and, you know, we feel that it's very important to vote and have your voice heard. And so for them to be able to do that and have to go through all that.

And then even if they are given provisional ballots, the process that they would have come back and try to verify who they are is cumbersome in itself, and that's a -- that was a concern also.

- Q. Does the Texas NAACP contend that -- that an African American voter is less likely -- an African American voter in Texas is less likely to possess a qualifying form of ID, under SB 14, than an Anglo or a Hispanic voter of the same socioeconomic status?
  - A. Could you say the question again?
- Q. Of course. Of course. So if had -- well, if you assume -- strike that. I'll just ask it again.
  - A. Okay.
- Q. Does the Texas NAACP contend that African American voters in Texas, are less likely to possess a qualifying form of photo ID than Anglo or Spanish voters of the same socioeconomic status?
- A. I would -- I think so. I think -- I think even there's been data that show that even if they are the same background or what have you, but it still would be maybe a little bit more, have less access to it or what have you. So I would think the data will show it. At least I can say I'm pretty sure compared with Anglos, I'd say yes. But I'm not 100 percent positive about Hispanics.

- Q. Okay. And you referred to -- to data. What -- what data were you referring to when you said the data will show that African Americans are less likely to possess photo ID regardless of socioeconomic status?
- A. I can't think of any I can cite specifically off the top of my head right now. But I think from stuff I've seen and read overall, I would believe that they would, even though they're from the same background from different studies, that they still had the disadvantages. So I would still say yeah.
  - Q. Okay. You can't identify a specific study to support that?
    - A. Not off the top of my head right now, no.
  - Q. Okay. Can you identify for us any articles or books or newspaper stories, anything like that?
  - A. Not that I can call -- recall right now specifically, no.
  - Q. Does the Texas NAACP contend that Latino voters in Texas are less likely to possess qualifying forms of photo ID, under SB 14, than Anglo and African American voters of the same socioeconomic status?
  - A. I would probably go back to my previous answer. And I couldn't say compared with African Americans, but I think when you look at overall data, still that they would more than likely, compared with

Q. Does the Texas NAACP contend that the Legislature intended to harm poor or indigent people by passing SB 14?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. What's the basis for that?

A. I think once you look at -- there were -- and I can't remember all amendments offered. But, you know there were amendments offered that would try to make it more accessible and easier on them to be able to vote. Whether it was saying, you know, you need to have the voting locations in better places. I know during discussion, it was brought up about how the free ID would not be free, when they would have to, you know, of IDs that they would have or normally have and use, and, you know, we look at the college, the cost of college is going up, so to try to put any more burden on -- on them for what they have to pay, that's unnecessary.

There has been -- you know, we -- it seems like, you know, every election cycle, there's always something in Waller County that's happening, when it comes to students being able to vote. Every election cycle. And I think in Gary's testimony, he -- I can't remember if it was the 2009 testimony or just 2011 testimony, but he had mentioned in there about the Prairie View 19, when you had 19 students who were who I believe the applications were processed down in Waller County, and the Secretary of State and the AG's Office had to step in to get that done. But here, you're causing another hurdle. It seems like every year, every election cycle, we always hear of Waller County, Waller County, Waller County, which is -- I say Waller County because that's where Prairie View A&M University is, just to clarify that.

So you don't want to have any other obstacle that could be created to -- that would cause a young person to vote, especially, you know, when it comes to African Americans, then you look at the other pay to get the documents needed to get the free ID, because those documents weren't free, and there was no kind of waiver trying to put it before them saying if you meet the financial requirement you can get since you're trying to vote. I think it was just some of the -- that's coming to head right now, when you look at those things that could have been done to make it easier and have it accessible to your indigent and low income people, there was -- it was brought to their attention.

Q. Does Texas NAACP contend that the Legislature intended to harm young people, young voters in particular, by passing SB 14?

A. Yes.

Q. And what's the basis for that contention?A. You look at the forms of ID that is offered to be used, and when it's -- I'm next to positive one of the amendments would have had college ID used, because on college campuses, that's what a lot of students have on them all the time anyway, and you have students who come from out of state who are able to vote where they live, and they are not able to vote or -- sorry -- students who -- who come from out of state to -- to Texas, and they are eligible to vote in Texas, is what I was trying to say. My brain just shut down on me for a second. You know, so when you take away IDs, the form forms of IDs that are offered, the number that African Americans who have, I guess, the higher percentage of -- and I'm sounding confusing -- would be college IDs, wher it compares, come down to the others. So when you take away forms that college students would normally have, that's a concern.

And I think even when -- it was a couple of months ago, I can't remember if it was a newspaper article or what it was, where there was a Republican Congressman in D.C., you know, and during one of the committee hearings, it was mentioned, they brought up Texas voter ID, and it was mentioned how -- he made a comment, they mentioned, "What do you think that they can't use college ID?" He said, "Of course you can use college ID. I'm sure it's in the bill. I've seen it." And one of his colleagues read to him, "No, you can't." He said, "No, I know it's there." And when they read it to him, it then became, "oh, well, I don't think they would do that, but I'm pretty sure I read it, and now I'll read it and find it." So you have others of the party that said they should pass the bill, push the bill, you know, saying that college ID should be there, I think we get a concern.

153 155 1 SB 14? 1 Legislature intended to harm urban voters by passing SB 2 2 Q. Can you explain the basis of that contention? 3 3 A. Yes. 4 4 A. Sure. Well, once again, you -- you look at --Q. Can you explain the basis for that contention? 5 you have elderly who -- who may not be driving anymore 5 and haven't been driving for a while, so they've let their ID lapse, and, you know, they may not need an ID because they're taken care of by family or what have you or whatever. So they may not have the ID or the ID may have lapsed, so now when it's time to get, go and get an ID, documents even necessary to produce to get the ID, they may not have. When it comes to if you had a midwife birth, or, you know, your birth certificate could be long lost and gone, or, you know, anything, and the hospital where you were born could -- especially if you were born, you know, in maybe in one of the rural areas or what have you, may no longer be operational and hasn't been for a while and you can't get, you know, the necessary documents to get the ID, you know, that's a

Q. Is there anything other than that, that leads you to believe that the Legislature intended to harm elderly people with SB 14?

Q. Can you explain the basis for that contention?

A. Sure. There were -- there was amendments offered that would -- that would say that, you know, you would need to have a DPS office in every county, so if I live in one county, I don't have -- have this great area to travel to get what I need to vote. And we're saying we want to have, make that required. That's to help them out so they can, you know, have access to get to a DPS office to get their IDs. Those amendments were -or it may have been just one, I can't remember how many, but the amendment was, you know, voted down.

I think there still could be, you know, a cost, the cost of -- of having to get to -- to locations, the cost of having to get documents needed to get the IDs as well, that could be -- that's a factor as well, when you're looking to whatever the burden you are putting on them in that aspect.

Q. Is there anything else that you would point to, to support the contention that the Legislature intended to harm rural voters with SB 14?

A. At the moment, that's -- that's all I can remember at -- at the moment.

Q. Does the Texas NAACP contend that the Texas

A. Sure. Once again, there were amendments that were recommended -- or amendments made, I should say sorry -- that would say, you know, you need to have more locations even in some of your rural cities, I can think of, like Houston. You know, the DPS offices that you will in Houston may not be in every -- I mean, Houston's a big city. It takes an hour to go from one half -- to one side to the other side. So you can live in Houston, and you can use the public transportation and still be far away from a DPS office. So that amendment was -was made.

They can still have the costs would be there for them as well. The cost, that could be a burden on them if they live in the inner city, and the money that they have is kind of budgeted already for what they need, and they wouldn't have the extra money for -- to get documents or to get a new ID or what have you, whatever. That could be -- that -- that was a concern of ours. When you -- and you look how, you know, there was amendments made for that as well -- as well, that were stricken down, and you would -- at the moment, that's all I can think of at the moment.

Q. Those are all the questions that I have.

Before we go off the record, are there any answers that you want to supplement or change from earlier?

A. Can I have a minute?

Q. Oh, of course. Take your time.

And do you recall any members of other minority groups testifying about the discriminatory effects that SB 14 might have?  A. Yes. MALDEF testified of discriminatory effects it would have on Hispanics and minorities. I do believe the League of Women Voters did, as well as the ACLU.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Hispanic surname and the Anglo group, and I think it was able to show that there was a disparity with between Anglos and Hispanic groups.  Q. And turning to the concealed handgun license, the data about people who have concealed handgun licenses, do you know anything about the relative proportion of different races within I'm sorry, strike that.  Do you know anything about the relative proportion of different racial minorities having concealed handgun licenses?  A. Somewhat, yes. I believe the data that they also submitted showed that African Americans and other minorities are at least likely to have concealed handgun licenses then when compared to Anglos.  Q. Thank you. Do you know, is SB 14 currently in effect right now?  A. It is not, no.  Q. If SB 14 goes into effect, will the NAACP have to change its programming or activities?

I think the amendments that were offered would have decreased the discriminatory effect against African Americans.  Q. Thank you. And do you recall if in passing SB 14, the Legislature changed any of its own rules?  A. Yes, they did. On the Senate side, they suspended the two-third rule, which two-third votes is needed to bring a bill up on the floor to have floor debate. They suspended that, that rule and had the debate as the Committee as a Whole on the House or the Senate floor.  Q. Thank you.
